

REMARKS

In paragraph 2 of the last office action, all of the claims in the present application are rejected on the grounds of double patenting over claims 1-15 of the U.S. patent 6,914,446. However, a terminal disclaimer may be used to overcome this double patenting rejection because the present application and patent 6,914,446 are owned by the same assignee (Unisys Corporation). Thus, to overcome this rejection, a terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee is submitted with this reply.

Please charge deposit account 19-3790 for any patent office fees associated with the filing and/or recording of this terminal disclaimer.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles J. Fassbender
